reference was forwarded on 21st September 1903 to the Superintendent of Police, French Rocks Sub Division as the information called for had to be ascertained at Ganjam. On receipt of a telegram and reminder from the Inspector General on the subject, an urgent reminder was sent to the Superintendent of Police, French Rocks. Copy of the latter's reply received on 24th November 1903 containing the information ascertained at Ganjam is herein enclosed for information.

Enquiries were also made in the Mysore city regarding Mahadeogiri. Venkatagiri Gosai in whose house the latter was put up, was living in Ravepett in the city in a house of his own about 4½ years ago which he is said to have sold soon after the occurrence of a plague case in his house and lived for some time in Ittigegud. Venkatagiri Gosai is then said to have left Mysore to go and settle down in his godi village in Barathipur near Sravanabelagola in the Chennarayapatna Taluq. No further information regarding Mahadeogiri could therefore be ascertained without a reference to the man at Barathipur.
